1. Find names of customers who have placed an order where the total order amount is greater than 10,000.
2. List the products that have never been ordered.
3. Find the employees who do not have any customers assigned to them.
4. Get the offices that do not have any employees working in them.
5. List the products with a higher than average price (MSRP).
6. Find the employees who report to "Mary Patterson".
7. List customers who have placed more than 5 orders.
8. Get the names of customers who have made payments greater than 5,000.
9. Find customers who have not placed any order in last year
10. Find the products ordered by customer "Atelier graphique".
11. Get the list of customers who have orders but no payments.
12. Find the names of customers who have placed an order in the current month.
13. List the employees who work in the same office as "Leslie Jennings".
14. Get the names of customers who have made a payment in the last 7 days.
15. Find the product lines that have more than 50 products.
16. List the names of employees who are managers (have other employees reporting to them)
17. Get the list of product codes for products that have been ordered more than 100 times.